

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE
February 23, 2010

Contact: Meghan Stinton
Marketing & Communications Manager
Colorado Women's Chamber of Commerce
E-mail: mstinton@cwcc.org
Phone: 303-458-0220

Colorado Women's Chamber of Commerce CEO to Meet with Colorado's Congressional Delegation in DC

Denver, CO – February 23, 2010 – Colorado Women's Chamber of Commerce CEO Donna Evans has been invited by the Colorado Association of Commerce & Industry to attend a Washington D.C. Fly-in. There are currently 11 other states participating in the Fly-In. This event is taking place Monday, March 1 through Tuesday, March 2.

The arranged flight to Washington DC will be leaving from DIA on March 1st at 8:15 a.m. on Southwest Airlines and will be returning to DIA March 2nd at 9:10 p.m. on Southwest Airlines. Members will be staying at the Double Tree on 1515 Rhode Island Ave NW, Washington DC. Attendees will have the opportunity to partake in a reception at the US Chamber of Commerce the evening of March 1st. On March 2nd, members will attend a breakfast at the US Chamber with several speakers informing them about the EFCA (The Employee Free Choice Act).

Attendees will have the opportunity to meet with as many Colorado delegators as possible. This will be a great opportunity to learn more about the status of the EFCA. The two sponsoring organizations are the Colorado Association of Commerce and Industry as well as the US Chamber of Commerce.

About Colorado Women's Chamber of Commerce:

Since its creation in 1988, The Colorado Women's Chamber of Commerce (CWCC) has played a significant role in growing business in Colorado. The CWCC was the nation's first chamber of commerce focused on creating a successful economic community for women in business. With more than 1,200 active members, the CWCC is currently one of the largest women's chambers in the nation. With the mission of creating an environment and the resources conducive to our members' business success, the CWCC is the premier organization that provides opportunities and visibility for women in business through relationship development, education, mentorship, partnership and alliances. CWCC provides many opportunities to become more involved and build relationships. Events include; monthly luncheons (Downtown, DTC and a North Luncheon), business after-hours, business expos, workshops and a procurement series. There are five leads groups as well as numerous committees available to members to build alliances, help launch successful events, expand their network and demonstrate their talents and commitment to others. For more information on the Colorado Women's Chamber of Commerce, call 303-458-0220, e-mail info@cwcc.org or visit www.cwcc.org.

About Colorado Association of Commerce & Industry:

The Colorado Association of Commerce & Industry is an organization which focuses on improving the business climate for businesses of all sizes. CACI aims to protect and enhance the ability of businesses to operate successfully in Colorado. For more information about the Colorado Association of Commerce & Industry please call (303) 831-7411 or visit www.cochamber.com.

About US Chamber of Commerce:

The US Chamber of Commerce is the world's largest business federation. With over three million businesses, the US Chamber of Commerce's purpose is to fight for free enterprise. The Chambers aims to implement policy on major issues affecting businesses. For more information please call (202) 659-6000 or visit www.uschamber.com.

###