

Curated Group Sponsorship Opportunities

Unique groups for CWCC members who are change agents, growth minded, rising leaders, or looking to get involved and give back

Women's Wealth & Investment

This group is for all women looking to learn about how to build their wealth, understand stock options, investing, real estate, retirement, and planning for their future.

Leaders of Change

This group is designed for leaders of employee/internal resource groups within an organization to share best practices and to provide participants tools, education, and resources that will strengthen their organizational groups.

Business Development

Designed for individuals in development roles to discuss strategies, best practices, and development

Well Set: Health & Wellness

This group will bring together like-minded individuals from all membership levels in the chamber who prioritize their physical, mental, emotional, and spiritual health.

Next Steps Group

This group is for women seeking support and guidance as they make a career change or are ready to create their own business.

Premier Sponsor

- Opportunity to kick off or close out each forum (2-3 minutes)
- Opportunity to work with CWCC to identify one speaker for professional development (inside sponsor's organization or outside) topic that relates to the needs of the group and is the right fit (determined by CWCC).
- Have up to two participants in the forum
- Access to group members (name, company, and email).
- Logo on registration page and company name in all communications to the group and all marketing materials for the group
- If/when meeting in person, the sponsor will host at their location. Wellness Sponsor: Provide promo item (i.e. water bottle, hand sanitizer, etc.) to members

Partner Sponsor

- Have one participant in the forum
- Logo on registration page
- Logo on all marketing materials for the group

These groups are designed to develop stronger networks to keep individuals accountable to their goals while having the opportunity to grow personally and professionally.

By sponsoring a curated group, you align your brand with the CWCC's mission to advance women in business and help women owned businesses grow. You will also gain exposure to a core group of empowering professionals.

Participation in these groups are included in membership.

We thrive when we are part of a strong community that is aligned around a common purpose and mission.
